

The Starry Constitution

“Don’t ever stop trying to make the world a better place.”

-Kamala Harris

Kamala did not concede the fight for freedom, and neither will we. Here, we wage with her “quieter ways” of “kindness and respect.”

Hope trumps hate!

Civility + Understanding = Kindness + Respect =
Peace & Unity.

Division is America’s greatest issue, so we will pursue unity, with understanding, kindness, and peace.

We are not enemies, when we are all Americans.

Not all red friends are hateful, ignorant, or brainwashed.

As humans, we wish well for other humans.

No human shall suffer more than any other,
as much as can be prevented.

We choose to see reality not as a nihilistic nightmare,
but as a lucid dream we may influence with our hope.

The Starry Constitution

Politics will not determine our mental health.

Our Pursuit of Happiness is our Reason to Live;
we respect others' pursuits as they respect ours;
we maintain Peace as the Collective Pursuit of Happiness.

All voters are adults, so we can act like adults.

The only way to win an existential civil war is to exist civilly.

Our different lives create our different perspectives,
and so we must understand and respect one another.

We shall not voice our political opinions to others
unless all are in agreement to hear voiced opinions, excepting protests, rallies, debates, etc.

All elected representatives shall maintain the appropriate behavior of modern adult humans.
Until then, voters must set the precedent.

Make America Acceptable Again!

Also, satire, parody, and silly activity books
that advocate for peace between political parties are protected speech under the First Amendment.
